

Presented by

Children's Music Network

A 501(c)(3) celebrating the positive power of music in the lives of children.

The Pass it On Award is given each Fall to a High School Senior, University or College student who completes the attached application and essay, and is selected by CMN's Pass it on Project Reviewers as the candidate most likely, throughout their lifetime, to continue celebrating the positive power of music in the lives of children AND to recognize the importance of networking and sharing knowledge, music, ideas, and songs.

The Children's Music Network international membership includes full-time and part-time performers, songwriters, classroom teachers, music educators, librarians, storytellers, record producers, distributors, broadcasters, parents, grandparents, and children. We sing, share, teach, write, play, perform, produce and enjoy children's music. We are diverse in age, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, and culture. We welcome all musical styles.

The recipient of the Pass It On Award will receive the following:

- Award certificate
- Announcement in the Children's Music Network online Magazine, PIO! (Pass It On!)
- The opportunity to present a workshop at the CMN Annual Conference
- A Grant covering the registration fee to the Children's Music Network Annual Conference
- Recognition and presentation of the award at the Annual Meeting Opening Session
- Cash scholarship of $500

Essay (to apply email the attached application and essay to office@cmnonline.org.)

Please share with the Children's Music Network members two things: 1. what draws you to the Children's Music Network (please review our website and social media to get to know us); and 2. how you envision celebrating the positive power of music in the lives of children throughout YOUR life. Your response should be submitted no later than May 31, 2023, as an attachment to an email on 8.5 by 11 size paper with 1 inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman, and no more than 750 words. Email your application and essay with "PIO Scholars Award" in subject line to: Office@cmnonline.org.
